Dr. Davarian Baldwin is the Paul E. Raether Distinguished Professor of American Studies at Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut. Dr. Baldwin’s work examines the landscape of global cities through the lens of the African Diasporic experience. He is most recently the author of In the Shadow of the Ivory Tower: How Universities are Plundering our Cities (Bold Type Books, 2021), and the forthcoming Land of Darkness: Chicago and the Making of Race in Modern America (Oxford University Press). Dr. Baldwin will be undertaking dialogues with faculty, graduate students, and community members at Western University from June 8 to 9, 2022:

- June 8, 9:30-11:30am – Seminar discussion of a little-known moment when Black graduate students of the Chicago School of Sociology developed a radical vision of Urban Studies built around a social movement vision of Black anti-fascism in the 1930s.
- June 8, 1:30-3:00pm – Panel discussion on community-engaged research practices with Dr. Jason Gilliland (Geography & Environment), and Sarah Merritt (Old East Village Community Association)
- June 9, 2:30-4:00pm – Public Keynote for the Town and Gown Association of Ontario’s The Road Ahead 2022 Conference
