7. Accommodation Policies

Accessible Education

Students with disabilities work with Accessible Education which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities.

Academic Consideration for Any Missed Assessments

Students will have up to 2 opportunities during the regular academic year to use an online portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student's final grade. Students must contact the instructor within 24 hours of the end of the period of self-reported absence. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:

- for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (December and April)
- absence of a duration greater than 48 hours
- assessments worth more than 30% of the student's final grade
- if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the year

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical, or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate ground for the absence in question. Students should contact their Faculty academic counselling office to obtain more information.

Students should also note that instructors are not permitted to receive documentation directly from a student, whether in support of an application for consideration on medical grounds, or for other reasons. All documentation required for absences that are not covered by the Self-Reported Absence policy must be submitted to the Academic Counselling office of a student's home faculty.

Religious Accommodation

Students should consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays, and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the instructor and an academic counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.

Course Grades

Grades will not be adjusted on the basis of need. It is important to monitor your performance in the course. You are responsible for your grades in the course.

8. Evaluation

Component	Date	Value
Discussion Questions	Weekly	5%
Lesson Review Quizzes	Weekly	11%
Assignment #1	Oct 8	7%
Midterm Test	Oct 16, 1:00 PM	32%
Assignment #2	Nov 19	7%

Students are responsible for material covered in lessons as well as readings and videos. Discussion questions are designed to encourage you to think critically about Canadian issues and to share thoughts and ideas with others. Lesson review quizzes are designed to assess your comprehension of concepts studied in that lesson. The midterm test will cover material studied from Sep 11 through Oct 9; it is timed and will be completed in an online format. The final exam will cover material studied from the entire course, but heavily weighted toward material studied in the second half. Exams will consist of a variety of question types.

For accommodation policies for medical or non-medical absences from discussion questions, quizzes, assignments, tests, or exams, please see ‘Academic Consideration for Any Missed Assessments’ in Section 6.

9. Make-up Examinations

A make-up exam will be granted with approved documentation only. All documentation has been provided to an Academic Counselling Office within 48 hours of the originally scheduled exam and students must notify the instructor of the absence within 48 hours of the originally scheduled exam. Otherwise, a grade of zero on the exam will be assigned. The content of make-up exams will differ from the originally scheduled exam.

10. Academic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a scholastic offence.

All work in this course must be completed individually. Sharing answers over internet message boards is an offence. Students found to be doing this are subject to disciplinary measures.

Computer graded multiple choice exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

11. Commitment to Accessibility

The Department of Geography and Environment strives at all times to provide accessibility to all faculty, staff, students and visitors in a way that respects the dignity and independence of people with disabilities. Please contact the instructor if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make the course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS) at 519-661-2147 for any specific question regarding an accommodation. Information regarding accommodated exams is available.
